

FUNDING RESOURCES FOR EDUCATORS

At Ecology Project International, we recognize that valuable and often life-changing student travel and teacher professional development opportunities can be tricky to fund.

We hope you find these resources useful in bringing those opportunities within reach for you and your students.

Fund for Teachers supports educators' efforts to develop skills, knowledge, and confidence that impact student achievement. By trusting teachers to design unique fellowships, Fund for Teachers grants validate teachers' professionalism and leadership.

This site provides a list of funding opportunities from various sources focusing on a wide range of topics. These teaching grants can fund professional development, classroom enrichment, school supplies, field trips, and almost anything that goes into bettering the quality of education.

Through their Learning & Leadership grants, the NEA Foundation supports the professional development of NEA members by providing grants to individuals and groups.

Mathematics Education Trust (MET) provides funding for professional development and recognition of outstanding contributions to the field of mathematics education through grants, scholarships, and awards.

Governor Cuomo's Empire State Excellence in Teaching Award recognizes educational leaders (Pre K-12) who strive to attain New York standards.

Toshiba America Foundation (TAF) grants fund the projects, ideas, and materials teachers need to innovate in their science, technology, engineering, and math classrooms. TAF is interested in funding innovative projects designed by teachers or small teams of teachers for use in their own schools and classrooms.

The Teacher Development Grants support small teams of teachers in the formation and implementation of groundbreaking K-12 classroom instruction. The grants provide teachers the opportunity to integrate fresh critical inquiry strategies, and to observe the effects of those strategies on students.

DonorsChoose.org empowers public school teachers to request much-needed materials and experiences for their students from a community of donors.

Since 2007, Target has supported K-12 schools nationwide, making it possible for millions of students to go on field trips.
